Vision of Hell

Scary sirens scream
through the restless city,
as loud as Big Ben calling:

Terror!

Planes plunging forwards
through the misty night sky
taking flight like an evil witch

Horror!

Crumpled crackled earth –
will it ever grow again, or the newborn
baby, will we hear his first cry?

Speculation.

Burning bombs leaping overboard
glide through putrid smoky air
like a devastating angry tornado.

Isolation.

Fierce flames spreading
through the old cobbled streets
like a deadly disease

Destruction!

Broken roads and buildings whimper
structures beyond repair
washed away by the tsunami of war,

now...

Hope?
